A Bible-Honouring Probe into the Gestapo of the Roman Catholic Church

Chris Pinto combines an intro and five of his radio programs of about three hours in total to cast light on the Jesuit's ongoing counter-Reformation plan. The Roman Catholic Church's history and doctrine are studied in the context of prophecy revealed by God in the Holy Bible (Authorized Version). He takes the Reformer's and ancient church's stand, that Rome is "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH", that great city which rests on seven mountains and with whom kings of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

Many less-known but relevant people and events are looked at: the Darkley Gospel Hall murders in Ireland; a dancing Indian Jesuit (Saju George) working to bring Hindus under Rome; Jesuit Thomas Reese and some revealing comments about illegal immigration and the Pope's central role in interfaith dialogue; the movie V for Vendetta and its Jesuit themes (Guy Fawkes and the ongoing war against England since the failed 1605 Jesuit Treason, the character V's fixation with the old Count of Monte Christo movie, a symbol of the Order's revenge after their 1773 suppression by Pope Clement XIV who was then poisoned).

He is to be commended for helping arm the body of Christ with knowledge and sound the alarm over ecumenism, the destructive spirit sown the past fifty years by men like Robert Schuller and Billy Graham who have leavened themselves with Rome.

There are also insightful Biblical teachings regarding the great millstone of Revelation and Rome the great stumbling block to the Gospel, the true Church versus the secular Jewish state of Israel, and the Pope as the ultimate flesh-idol of the Jesuits.

I) Introduction (~18 min)

Chris takes a contemporary approach by highlighting the growing power of Roman Catholicism in the United States political area. Georgetown University is mentioned as a Jesuit 'nest' for it is the place of education of prominent politicians. Two-thirds of the judges constituting the Supreme Court of Justice are Roman Catholics and it is pointed out all Roman Catholics must be obedient to the Pope.

For those scoffing at crackpot 'conspiracy' theorists the book of Ezekiel is mentioned, where there is a conspiracy among the prophets [the basic definition of conspiracy should be remembered, i.e., usually two or more people working together to brake a law].

An obvious sign of Jesuit influence are the two sculptures in Washington D.C. of [anti] Pope Innocent III (1179-1180) and Pope Gregory IX (1227-1241), both creators of the Inquisition in its wicked forms.

Chris' presentation style seems engaging, professional and minimally affected and his prime goal is to primarily inform the Body of Christ of what he knows to be Revelation 17 and 18s Whore of Babylon.

II) Jesuits and Power (~60min)

Weighty quotations demonstrating the wickedness of the Jesuit Order: Dr. Ian Paisley describes them as the 'Gestapo of the Roman Catholic Church'; William Sherman<sup>1</sup> as the 'Engineer Corps of Hell' [this was the title of his book]; President John Adams that the 'Sons of Loyola' are a group out of any meriting damnation on earth and in hell; and poet John Donne in his satire [Ignatius, His Conclave] said Ignatius was kicked out of hell for being too wicked!

Malachi Martin's best seller is discussed but Chris astutely bewrays it as a piece of shrewd propaganda [in true Hegelian-Jesuit form]: Vatican II is made out to be a betrayal by the Jesuits, yet it is stated ('provable') Vatican to prophecy as the Whore must be a separate entity to the beast/kings of the earth].

It is actually the fulfilment of centuries of Jesuit scheming! This is likely an allusion to the ecumenical movement which will be headed by the Pope and right in-line with the 'pope's men'.

A 'divided' Babylon theory is mentioned, chapter 17 is Rome but 18 is some sort of giant economic one. Chp. 18, v. 24 reveals they must be the same one as the Whore is responsible for the blood of saints and prophets.

An appropriate comparison between Revelation 18.21 and Luke 17.2 is made, that Rome (rampant with celibacy-driven paedophilia) not only harms little ones physically, but spiritually from baptism. It is a great stumbling block to the true Gospel of Christ, especially the direct persecution of the saints.

Interestingly, it is noted the Vatican nation is not a member of the United Nations [this remains true

Billy Graham is said to have been involved in Ecumenism with Rome from before his quick rise to fame. His honorary doctorate was conferred by a Jesuit College Belmont Abbey in 1967. Paraphrasing, Billy Graham said the Jesuit gospel was the same he preached!

Historical patterns between Rome and Hitler's regime are pointed out, e.g. the wearing of yellow stars by Jews which was required in the Middle Ages. The bloodthirsty nature of the French massacres at Beziers and St. Bartholomew, and WWII Serbian Orthodox religicide in Croatia.

Other conspiracy theorists are referred to in comparing Holocaust deniers with Inquisition deniers, however those with spiritual discernment are to know both were true. The supposed Masonic and Romanist 'conflict' is exposed as a fraud given the Masons built the U.S. Capitol, including the Papal statues!

Similarly, Ignatius' apotheosis in the Gesu Church shows the pride and conceit of the Roman Church, how they celebrate their own wicked deeds and murders by immortalising perpetrators in art.

Jesuit-Mormon-New Age connections are made with Glen Beck ('take back America movement'). He was trained by Jesuits as a child but is now involved in the occult. Likewise, one Bill O'Reilly is a devout, austere Roman Catholic in favour of 'water-board' torture to extract confessions and save lives. The parallel here is to Inquisition-style torture of 'heretics' to find more 'heretics'.

Napoleon Bonaparte is also quoted: "The aim of the Jesuit Order is power in its most despotic exercise. The Jesuits wherever they are will be masters come what may." This may be an allusion to his own downfall after crowning himself rather than allowing the Pope to.

Veiled media references are also made in modern cinema: V for Vendetta (2005) has a protagonist wearing a Guido ('Guy') Fawkes mask who enjoys watching old black and white movies. The one being shown is the Count of Monte Christo, which really tells the story of the triumphant Jesuit Order's return after their unjust dissolution by Pope Clement XIV in 1773. That movie is set in London, and is prophetic of the anarchy being seeded to bring England to its knees for deliverance to the Pope. This would be a fulfilment of the failed 1604 Gunpowder Plot or Jesuit treason.

Other modern false prophets and Roman sympathisers like Rick Joyner (Knight of Malta) are mentioned.

The Vatican has the largest and most powerful spy network in the world, including the CIA!

A popular false conspiracy theory is now being peddled, that Rome is just a distraction having been taken over by Wall Street bankers, Jews, Bilderbergers, etc. (e.g. Texe Marrs, Alex Jones).

The Jesuit plan is unfolded succinctly by referencing German historian Griesinger in Professor Arthur Noble's The Jesuits and their Strategy to Destroy Britain (Lecture at the Fourth EIPS Seminar): (i) stack the educational system to indoctrinate the youth; (ii) become confessors to the rich and powerful; (iii) acquire vast wealth while adhering to a vow of poverty [!].

III) The Jesuit Order's Influence on the Evangelical Church (~35min)

This section contains interesting primary sources, accusations from Jack Van Impe against Ian Paisley and rebuttal by Dr. Owen.

Ecumenism and Dominionism theologies are part of the New World Order unification strategy of Rome.

The sole purpose of the Jesuit Order is to overthrow the Protestant Reformation as evidenced by their oath entered into the U.S. Congress Library.

Loyola's Spiritual Exercises and New Age teachings are highly correlated. Rome is behind the multiple versions controversy, the new critical Greek text being based upon uncial manuscript Vaticanus!

Televangelist Jack Van Impe is played from 1976 at the World Congress of Fundamentalists, Edinburgh, accusing Ian Paisley of leading Protestants into places to 'kill people' [!] Van Impe couldn't bring himself to speak against Billy Graham and his Popish leanings.

Dr. Cooke (personal friend of Dr. Ian Paisley) is interviewed by Chris and comments on a number of things re: Impe's accusations: the IRA machine gunning of a Pentecostal Church at Darkley<sup>2</sup>, ten Protestants being lined up on their way home from work and shot dead. The Priests buried the IRA killers but Paisley said these killers needed to be brought to justice.

Roman Catholicism's shape shifting nature is pointed out – in America it is more rational and intellectual however the mystery religion roots are still there, as evidenced by watching EWTN for an hour!

Billy Graham on Larry King quotes: “The Pope is our friend”, “I'm equally home at a Roman Catholic church”.

A good Bible study concludes the section, on idolatry and the unrighteous in I Peter leaves no room for ecumenism, or for questioning whether un-Biblical 'Christians' may be saved. Historically, a defeated king's head was stomped face down under the victor as a sign of submission and this is how it will be with Jesus and his enemies.

In Revelation 19.13, Jesus' dipped robe is not his blood, it is the blood of his enemies!

IV) Jesuit Sophistry and Casuistry (~35 min)

Chris gives basic definitions of these terms which were well known by Protestants in earlier times as relating to Jesuits. Sophistry is the use of words attempting to give a pretence of an answer only, which is in itself invalid and deceiving. Casuistry is the use of clever but unsound reasoning relating to moral issues.

An interesting story from Abbot Leone of a rich adulterous woman whose Jesuit confessor's casuistry enables her to sin, as long as she gives more to the Catholic Church.

Arminianism ('free-will') and Calvinism ('pre-destination') is mentioned with reference to Romans 7.17. After Arminius' visit to Rome he began to teach he (Paul) only was a wretched man.<sup>3</sup>

The Jesuit drive is to 'become all things to all men' and make them subject to the Pope. In this they become masters in many different endeavours: cooking, science, education, etc.

One Indian Jesuit, Saju George is quoted. He is a dancer and explains that Hindu worship is dance, this activity liberates the body, therefore since a Christian's body is the Holy Spirit dancing helps liberate the Christian.

Lou Dobbs interviewing Jesuit Thomas Reese re: porous Mexican border and illegal immigration: "We need a system to let people come here and get a visa...there are people born here, American citizens, who are

<sup>3</sup>Paul is not excusing himself from sinning, or in a Calvinistic way he had to sin, rather gives in willingly to its power, which is powerful even on the Christian. Paul says in the next verse that he still has a (free) will in him.

illegals.” (Lou Dobbs) “You didn't answer a single question I asked...you can do that because you're a Jesuit.”

Chris hits the nail on the head regarding Jesuit strategy: they use the perfect shield of philanthropy and charity. After confidence of those on power has been won they are able to step up into power.

V) Rome, The Jesuits and Interfaith (~36 min)

Again Chris spiritually perceives the Jesuit strategy, that the pope is the 'ultimate Jesuit front-man'.

Papal adoration is the worship of a newly enthroned pope by the conclave of cardinals. Worship in the true sense of the word is deemed appropriate given the ceremony of Eucharistic adoration, where the wafer is adored as God. It is noted Vatican II still upholds transubstantiation and those holding other views are anathema.

'Quem creant adorant' is the latin phrase of papal adoration which means 'whom we create, we adore'. An interesting parallel to creation is given, rather than God creating man, man creates a living god, the pope as an ultimate idol! Creation of gods is rooted in covetousness which is why the two are the same.

At the general assembly in 1825, Chieri, Italy, the Jesuits stated goal is for all men to enter into a perpetual door of the their own making, the pope.

Mariolatry has been pushed in the modern Catholic Church, as in the time of Pope John Paul II (d. 2005) seeing it would be easier for people to pray to her than Jesus. Also, secularisation of Jesuit strategy has been chosen for its effectiveness in bringing about the New World Order. The Great Seal on the dollar bill and other symbolism is discussed, including Zisca [a Hussite] and his soldier's shields- they had a chalice symbol (of life) on them, versus the cross (of death) of Rome.

Vatican counter-revelation and the Emergent Church are identical according to Chris' teachings. The Apostles of this doctrine were Robert Schuller and Billy Graham, whose hearts must be far from God based on their fruits.

Jesuit Thomas Reese on John Paul II's ecumenical successes: “It is important for good relations and peace, that Muslims, Jews and Christians learn to work together for peace to do the work of our common father. The Jews don't have a pope, the Muslims don't have a pope but we Catholics do have a pope.”

Chris points out the pre-eminence given to the pope in every one of his meetings with the rich and powerful, being the focal point of power.

A Rabbi's statement of comfort that for the last fifty years the 'new' Rome has backed off evangelising the Jews is a revealing statement. Catholicism does not preach the true gospel because it does not believe the Jews need to be saved! Isaac was the only son of Abraham because he was the son of promise and the only one God chose to recognise, not Ishmael. Today, the seed of Abraham are those of the promise (Christians), while the Jews are the seed of the flesh (Ishmael).

VI) History of the Jesuits (~20 min)

Political activism versus turning the world upside down, i.e., preaching the gospel. Ecumenism with Rome and peddling the false history of America.

The religious freedom charter of the U.S. constitution was part of the Jesuit plan in allowing Roman Catholicism to be legalised. Georgetown University was soon built and Catholic infiltration of U.S. politics has begun.

J.A, Wylie's History of Protestantism volume is recommended. Chapter I, Jesuits and the Reformation: “Jesuit plan was to stem and roll-back the tide of the reformation.” Chris paints the reformation as another world-turning event, rather than what is generally accepted, discrete military-like Christian sects under Luther, Calvin, etc. conquering parts of Europe.

Jesuitry is linked back to classical philosophy of the Greeks and Romans, through the first popes. They used many of the same techniques of deceit [e.g. Donation of Constantine, Pseudo-Isidorian Decretals] and had a form of godliness (e.g. philosophical or spiritual knowledge), yet ultimately wanted to know God on their own terms.

It should be clear to the born-again listener other belief systems and conspiracies are smokescreens, the real power has been and still is with Rome. As Biblical Christianity continues to weaken she sits as queen, unyielding and on track to bring all under her influence “ad majorem dei gloriam”.
