Alberto Against Rome

Two separate claims are made in this short but well-documented book:

(i) That Alberto was a Jesuit priest.

(ii) Rome's involvement in historical and ongoing conspiracies is a reality.

Focus is mainly on the latter with a format of responses to twelve of Alberto's charges against Rome being used. The reader should first acquire his six-part Crusader comic book series to understand the origin of the accusations.

As to Alberto being a Jesuit the evidence presented is his identification card as a priest (issued under Franco's Roman Catholic regime), Archbishopric authorisation for his foreign ministry, photographic evidence teaching as a priest in Spain, and a signed open letter challenging detractors.

The reader must judge whether these detractors (i.e. Gary Metz, in the 'Evangelical Christian' periodical "Christianity Today", and Brian Onken, formerly of the Christian Research Institute) brought any evidence outside of character assassination to prove beyond a reasonable doubt he was not a Jesuit priest.

After some of Alberto's materials were banned in Canada and Christian booksellers intimidated by Rome, the Canadian Protestant League made their own inquiries. Their response from relevant police jurisdictions was "we have never heard of this man!".

On the second claim, if one has fortitude to see past the Jesuitical fog of anti-conspiracy mantra, there can be no doubt Alberto's claims agree with history.

The reader should constantly remind themselves they are dealing with a murderous institution, one whose boast is it never changes. A modern day example (only 73 years ago in WWII) bears witness (charge #11 in the book):

*Croatia's brutal inquisition under the Ustashi (i.e. Catholic Action), the mass murder of Eastern Orthodox Serbians and Jews. The regime at its end (in November 1945, after Ante Pavelic fled for Argentina via Pope Pius XII's Vatican ratlines) was lead by Archbishop Aloysius Stepinac himself.

Photographs on pp. 260-277 of Dr. Lazo M. Kostich's book "Holocaust In The Independent State Of Croatia" are recommended for bringing some reality to the above: a mass grave, bayoneted bodies, severed Orthodox heads, a man's crushed skull (crushed by Ustashi 'skull crushers'), emaciated Serbian children saved from an Ustashi-run concentration camp, Ante Pavelic surrounded by Catholic clergy, Franciscan Miroslav Filipovic as a Franciscan monk and as Commandant of Jasenovac concentration camp, etc.

The book concludes with a refutation of the Christianity Today article centered on three questions:

Why the eagerness to condemn a man exposing a false religion? Where is solid proof against Alberto (e.g. court records)? Finally, who would even expect Rome to admit he was a Jesuit?

Erratum: p.25, Deggendorf slaughter of Jews was in 1337, not 1377.

I) 12 Most Frequently Heard Charges Against Alberto Answered (pp. 11-71)

(i) Jesuits do not infiltrate other Churches.

The Vatican has the most efficient spy network in the world and employs full-time trained agents. Jesuits are the epitome of ruthless cunning and in their oath are taught to be a spy “even among your own brethren”<sup>1</sup>.

(ii) Ignatius did not found the Jesuit Order.

A surprising accusation given this history is found in the Encyclopedia Britannica!<sup>2</sup>

(iii) Rivera's claims are extreme and paranoid.

This is the most effective charge as it is aimed at people's indoctrinated sense of incredulity and proclivity for cognitive dissonance. Provable Roman Catholic conspiracies quickly run out of space: Peter the first 'Pope' and foundation of the Church, Constantine's 'conversion', Donation of Constantine, Pseudo-Isidorian Decretals, Beziers Massacre, John Wycliffe's exhumation and cremation and the murder of the Lollards, John Huss' execution, Merindole Massacre, Tyndale's execution, St. Bartholomew Massacre, Bloody Mary and the Smithfield burnings, Spanish Armada against Queen Elizabeth, Gunpowder Plot against King James, Abraham Lincoln's assassination by a Jesuit coadjutor, Concordat with Mussolini answering the 'Roman Question', Concordat with Hitler, Concordat with Franco, Ante Pavelic and Catholic Action (Ustashi), etc.. Notwithstanding, the truth (at least for Christians) of conspiracies is best established by God Himself:

“There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.”<sup>3</sup>

(iv) That Ignatius founded the Illuminati is absurd.

In 1776, Jesuit, Professor Adam Weishaupt founded the Bavarian Illuminati at Ingolstadt University, also stated by Encyclopedia Britannica<sup>4</sup>. Two hundred and fifty years prior, Ignatius was interrogated by the Spanish Inquisition for being a member of the Alumbrados.

(v) The Roman Catholic Church never tried to exterminate the Jews.

Jews are mentioned in Constitutions 67-70 of the Council of Lateran, 1215, under the subjects of excessive usury, appearance in public, holding public office, and retaining old customs after conversion (e.g. the Spanish 'Marranos'<sup>5</sup>).

Persecutions include:

*Deggendorf, 1337<sup>6</sup>.

*Seville, 6 June, 1391, by Archdeacon Ferrand Martinez. 'Thousand's' killed.<sup>7</sup>

*Toledo, Spanish Inquisition under Thomas de Torquemada.

*Lisbon, Portugal, April 1506 by the populace under Dominican excitations. Up to 4,000 deaths.

An article in the West Australia (Dec. 4, 1985, p. 75) entitled "Prelate: Too Soon To Ask Forgiveness" includes: "It would be premature for the Catholic church to ask the forgiveness of the Jews for centuries of persecution".

According to an Encyclopedia Britannica entry (11th Edn., Vol. II, p. 37):

"The Roman Catholic Church has always been...the font of anti-Semitism".

(vi) The Jesuits did not set up WWI

Pope Pius X had been inciting Emperor Franz Josef II of Austria to 'chastize the Serbians'. From the Bavarian Nuncio Baron Ritter, he also approved of Austria's harsh treatment of Serbia and had no great opinion of the armies of Russia and France. The assassination of heir to the Hapsburg Empire Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife Sophie, by Gavrilo Princip<sup>8</sup> triggered WWI. Pius X supposedly died of heartbreak at the turn of events.

History records President Abraham Lincoln, and Professor Samuel Morse's view of the 1861 American Civil War that Jesuit planning, including promise of arms for the South caused them to attack. Pius IX in correspondence with Jefferson Davis actually addressed him as the "Honourable President of the Confederate States of America", he also included a signed portrait.<sup>10</sup>

(vii) Jesuits did not cause the 1917 Russian Revolution to destroy the Eastern Orthodox Church

The assumption of outside support in modern times is sound, without it no revolution can succeed.

The financial trail was from German to Swedish to Russian banks and the Germans saw the overthrow of the Czarist system as a way to end the war. The coincidental event would be a weakening of the Orthodox Church enabling a takeover by Rome.

(viii) Jesuits didn't write Mein Kampf

Witnesses in support include Edmund Paris in Secret History of the Jesuits<sup>11</sup> and Otto Strasser in Hitler and I<sup>12</sup>. Father Staempfle was a Jesuit and member of the Order of St. Jerome. Hitler had him murdered June 30, 1934 by a special death squad.

(ix) The Jesuits did not start a new Inquisition by bringing Mussolini, Hitler and Franco to power

In 1922, after WWI Pius XI became Pope and began negotiations with Mussolini, commanding the Catholic Party under Don Sturzo to give power to the Duce that same year. Sturzo's party was then disbanded. The Lateran Treaty [in 1929], conquest of Ethiopia and Albanian aggression (1939) followed.

In Germany, Papal Nuncio Mgr. Pacelli (future Pope Pius XII) and Franz Von Papen [Papal Chamberlain] made the Catholic Zentrumspartei vote power to Hitler (on Jan 30, 1933), overthrowing the Weimar Republic. As in Italy, having served its purpose the Catholic party was then disbanded. In 1937, the Vatican gave de facto recognition to General Franco's Government.<sup>13</sup>

All Hitler's generals and advisors were Roman Catholics. Goebbels (propagandist), Bormann, Kaltenbrunner (SS General) and Hoess (SS Lieutenant Colonel and Auschwitz Commandant) received a Jesuit education.

(x) Death camps were not run by Roman Catholic Priests and Nuns.

Himmler, head of Gestapo and his right-hand man Heydrich were Roman Catholic. Himmler's uncle was a Jesuit priest who committed suicide once arrested after the war.

As above, Hoess ran Auschwitz.

French Cardinal Baudrillart and Mgr. Mayol de Luppe recruited the L.V.F. (Legion des volontaires francais contre le bolchevisme) to crusade in Russia.

Jesuit Monsignor Josef Tiso, President of Czechoslovakia (1939-1945) who sent all Jews bar a token few to Auschwitz's ovens.

According to Dr. Mile Budak, Ustashi Minister of Education and Cults, July 22, 1941, "The movement of the Ustashi is based on religion. For the minorities-Serbs, Jews and Gypsies, we have three million bullets...thus our new Croatia will...become one hundred per cent Catholic within ten years."

(xi) The Jesuits neither formed nor led the Yugoslavian Ustashi deathsquads

Ustashi is actually a synonym for Catholic Action. Seven Protestant ministers visited Yugoslavia after the war to document the regime's activity. The goal was genocide of the Serbian people via death, expulsion and conversion. They found candid material in official Roman Catholic print media of Archbishop Stepinac's collaboration with Nazi forces (they thought Germany would win the war).

Ante Pavelic and Eugen (Dido) Kvaternik organised Roman Catholic laypeople ('Crusaders') into a Fifth Column to help invading Italian and Germans topple the Yugoslavian Kingdom. Under Ustashi rule, 70,000 Jews were killed and 240,000 Serbians forced to become Byzantine Roman Catholics. Dissidents were simply murdered.

Hundreds of sworn depositions attesting to these crimes were seen. Post war works include Dr. Lazo M. Kostich's Holocaust In The Independent

State Of Croatia. Dr. Eugen Gerstenmeir (second in charge of West Germany after the war) visited Serbia from 2/9/41-22/9/41 (i.e. during the rule of Ante Pavelic) to award German scholarships to Orthodox candidates as an anti-Communist measure. Gerstenmeir relates the bestial conduct of the Ustashi: throat cutting en masse, property theft and expulsion.<sup>14</sup>

Another German witness, Professor Josef Matl said the [Catholic Church] was drawn into “bloody nationalistic terror excesses against the Serbian Orthodox population” and their losses were “appraised at several hundred thousand”.<sup>15</sup>

Prima facie photographic evidence is also condemning.<sup>16</sup>

The Ustashi-Catholic connection is further verified by Dr. Mile Budak, Ustashi Minister of Education and Cults, July 22, 1941: “The movement of the Ustashi is based on religion. For the minorities-Serbs, Jews and Gypsies, we have three million bullets...thus our new Croatia will...become one hundred per cent Catholic within ten years.”<sup>17</sup>

(xii) Jesuits did not prepare fifth columns in non-Axis nations or prepare secret commando cells in the U.S.A.

As to fifth columns, France and Yugoslavia had them. In France Pierre Laval was a Papal knight, General Weygand was Jesuit trained and Marshal Petain a prominent Roman Catholic.

With the charges refuted, Rome's modus operandi against Alberto is detailed: character assassination. The hypocritical Paragon of Deception (cf. Donation of Constantine, Pseudo Isidorian Decretals, Jan Hus' burning at Constance<sup>18</sup>, St. Bartholomew Massacre, Gunpowder Plot, Edict of Fontainbleau, etc.) is exposed. Its doctrines of mental reservation and traditions of men are diametrically opposed to the Bible (e.g. Mary's perpetual virginity, her sinless perfection, money exchanged for remission of sins, etc.). History demonstrates Rome has never and is incapable of change in its raw nature, else it would self-destruct (cf. Mk 3.23).

On character assassination Gary Metz's<sup>19</sup> infamous article “The Uncomical Alberto Rivera” in Christianity Today is quoted. This was designed to besmirch Dr. Rivera's character.

But for the Canadian Protestant League's intervention in their country, Rome would have had Alberto's material banned as hate literature.

The author decries the lack of Christian solidarity provided to Chick, and Alberto when he was alive. The Roman Catholic Church is the largest cult organisation in the world and its members need to hear the saving gospel of Christ and be made of the reality of the evil institution they have been duped into believing is the spotless bride of Christ.

As to Alberto being a Jesuit, the evidence presented is his identification card (issued under Franco's regime), Archdiocesan authorisation for foreign ministry, photographic evidence of teaching as a priest, and his personal testimony. If it is fair to take Alberto at his word, the reader must judge whether his detractors have brought any evidence to prove beyond a reasonable doubt he was a fraud and a liar.

II) Private Investigation of Alberto

Romanist methods of suppressing the Alberto series in Canada of intimidation of Christian bookstores, denial of post office services, import bans, and 'hate literature' classification by the Attorney General of Ontario brought action from the Canadian Protestant League.

The CPL also undertook their own investigations of charges made against Alberto. The response from relevant police jurisdictions was they have never heard of Alberto!

III) Answer To Article In Christianity Today

The last chapter is a response by one James M. Houston who makes three main arguments:

*Why is Christianity Today so anxious to condemn someone exposing a false religious system?

*Where is solid proof refuting Alberto's claims?

*The Catholic Church denies Alberto's claims!
