

THE FOUNDER

Since Christ's resurrection, Rome has warred with Christians whenever power was in her hand. Those destroyed were given many 'heretic' labels as justification: Pauticians, Bogomils, Cathars, Waldensians, Albigenians, Lollards, Hussites, Protestants. Since Vatican Council II in 1960, as the sword cannot be used openly Christians have been labelled 'separated brethren' and are called to 'come home' to Mother.

This weakening of Rome's power, or 'deadly blow' was dealt proper by the Reformation in the early 15th century. Its trigger was getting the Bible into the hands of the people in their own language. This light dispelled the mummeries and heresies of Rome and brought Martin Luther (1493-1546) to the conclusion the Pope, or 'his Hellishness', was Antichrist:

"For example, it is held that there is no purgatory, since the Hellish Father in Rome has invented it for a fair and has stolen unlimited money and property with it. Again, [it is held] that indulgences are a filthy fraud, with which the Hellish Father has made fools of and defrauded all the world...And I myself, in Rome, heard it said openly in the streets, 'If there is a hell, then Rome is built on it.'" Martin Luther, Against the Roman Papacy, an Institution of the Devil, 1545.

To say the Reformation was a setback for Rome is an understatement-she was losing paying customers hand over fist. Something was needed, a counter-Reformation.

 Inigo [Ignatius] López de Loyola (1491-1556) was born in Spain in a noble family, suspected of being Jewish in whole or part<sup>1</sup>. During a battle in 1521 defending Pamplona from the French, he was wounded in both legs by a cannon ball. While recovering from crude surgery he took comfort in stories of Catholic saints (e.g. St. Dominic / St. Francis). In the end Loyola had a vision of the Queen of Heaven and a baby. This was how he converted to what he thought was Christianity. Soon after this new 'Christian' left a decision to murder a man over Mary's perpetual virginity to the whim of his donkey, whether it would ride after him or not on a road<sup>2</sup>

The Bible [Authorized Version] is says Mary was not a perpetual virgin as Jesus had paternal siblings:

"And knew her [Mary] not till she had brought forth her firstborn son....Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?"

And they were offended at him...But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.<sup>3</sup>

His occult visions continued: a beautiful serpent that made him joyful (which he rejected as evil); the Trinity (as a lyre/harp); Jesus Christ (about forty times, in a white formless body); Mary (also a shapeless white figure). He found the experiences worth dying for and placed them above any scripture<sup>4</sup>:

"To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."<sup>5</sup>

 After a failed pilgrimage to Jerusalem in 1523 Loyola returned to France. Eleven years later with six other disciples he vowed a vow in an old church on a hill called Montmartre in France<sup>6</sup>. This began the 'Company of Jesus', of which he was elected General unconditionally. This office is now known as the Black Pope, not merely for its black attire, but that each 'White Pope' has a Jesuit confessor. It is no coincidence the current Pope [Francis I] is a Jesuit and he reports to his General

 Adolfo Nicolás. In 1537, Venice, Loyola was ordained a priest, then in 1540 the Order received Papal sanction by Pope Paul III in Regimen Ecclesiastiae Militantis (members limited to sixty). This bloody band would turn out to be no Salvation Army! In the Jesuit's Constitutions they are to war against 'Protestants' (Lutherans): "All that His Holiness will command us for the good of souls or the propagation of the faith, we are bound to carry out...to the fullest extent of our power, whether ...among the Turks

 Mary casts out Hus & Luther as an angel rips the Bible...to the Lutherans."<sup>7</sup> Co-founder Pierre Lavre "was sent for the Reformation' and in Germany after him Jesuit-saint Pieter de Houndt became known as 'hammer of the heretics'<sup>8</sup>. His legacy was 1,110 Jesuits and colleges in Austria and Germany, and control of Ingolstadt University, where in 1776 Jesuit-trained Adam Weishaupt founded the Illuminati<sup>9</sup>. The Jesuit's ran the Council of Trent (1545-1563) which cursed the Reformation and Bible teaching: good works help to forgive sin; the seven 'sacraments' have God's grace; faith in God's mercy alone is not enough; no one can say they are saved; you can lose your salvation. Loyola's influence was vast-he wrote 6,800 letters to Popes and Kings from America to Japan.<sup>10</sup> Before death he charged his Jesuits to 'go, and set the world ablaze!' Rome made him a 'saint' in 1622, by which time they had done so much evil poet John Dunne (1611) penned Ignatius, his conclave: "for having presently cast his [Ignatius] eyes to the principal place, next to Lucifer's own throne, and finding it possessed he stopped Lucifer, and asked him who it was that sat there. It was answered that it was Pope Boniface. 'Is he an Innovator thundered Ignatius? Shall I suffer this...With this Ignatius flies upwards, and rushes upon Boniface, and throws him out of his Seat: and Lucifer went up with him as fast and gave him assistance, lest, if he should forsake him, his own Seat might be endangered."<sup>11</sup>

THE MURDERS

"And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here." Ezekiel 8.8-9

Like most cults (e.g. Islam), Jesuit doctrine allows them to kill people they don't like. 'If a Father...abuses a woman and she publicizes it...the same Father can kill her to avoid disgrace...A monk or priest is allowed to kill those who are ready to slander him or his community."<sup>12</sup> Whether assassination of one or sparking wars they are equal to the task, but their specialty is king-killing.

Jesuit Guinard, 1589: "Neither Henry III nor Henry IV...nor...Queen Elizabeth, are true kings...Clement has done a heroic action in killing Henry III...it is a meritorious action...to kill a heretic king."<sup>13</sup>

Henri III- Jesuit victim.

Henri IV- Jesuit victim.

In 1589, King Henry III of France was assassinated by Jesuit-inspired Jacques Clement for his lack of zeal against 'heretics'<sup>14</sup>. This was 17 years after the bloody St Bartholomew massacre of French Christians, arranged by Jesuit patron and Queen-mother of France Catherine de Medici.

Next in line was King Henry IV of France who became Catholic to win the crown. Notwithstanding, this Henry also lacked the inquisition spirit of the Jesuits. In 1593, blessed by the Jesuit Varade, Pierre Berriere tried and failed to kill Henry. In 1594, Jesuit-student Jean Chatel, under Jesuit Guinard, stabbed him in the face-Henry survived, Chatel and Guinard were executed, and the Jesuits banned for a time. In 1598, Henry did the unthinkable-giving religious freedom to French Christians by the Edict of Nantes. The Jesuits finally got him in 1610 when his carriage was stopped in the street, and assassin Francois Ravallac stabbed him in the heart.

In England, Queen Elizabeth I's murder was sanctioned by Pope Pius V's Regnans in Excelsis: Excommunicating Elizabeth I of England, 25/2/1570: "Elizabeth, the pretended queen of England and servant of crime...We...are compelled by necessity to take up against her the weapons of justice...we...declare...Elizabeth to be a heretic and favourer of heretics."<sup>15</sup> The Jesuits went all out: the Ridolfi Plot (1570); Barge Incident (1578); John Summerville (1583); Throgmorton Plot (1583); Dr William Parry (1584); the Babbington Plot (1586). Frustrated by failure, Rome sent four Spanish Armadas to kill her-the first, or 'Invincible' one, on May 28, 1588 was 55,000 soldiers and 130 ships. By October half was destroyed by the English navy and divine providence. Pope Sixtus V had written a 1 million-ducat IOU to King Phillip II of Spain, but only redeemable if he won!

The character of 'V' glorifies Jesuit assassin Guy Fawkes.

Before Elizabeth's death in 1603, her cousin King James VI of Scotland was named heir. The Jesuits were still burning hot and that year was the 'Treason of the Priests' (or 'Bye Plot'), to kidnap and ransom James, also imprison the Privy Council. In July was the 'Treason at Maine' to throne James' Catholic cousin Lady Arabella. The big one however was uncovered in 1606, the 'Jesuit Treason' (Gunpowder Plot). Jesuits

Garnett, and Owlcorne planned to blow up James and the Parliament with a team of killers led by Spanish soldier Guido 'Guy' Fawkes. The plan was foiled at the last moment. Now each year on the 5th of November his effigy is burned in remembrance. King James I:

And hath he [the pope] not of late days, seeing his kingdom going to decay, sent out the Jesuites, his last and most pernicious vermin, to stir up the Princes of the earth his slaves, to gather and league themselves together for his defense, rooting out of all them that professe Christ truly?<sup>16</sup>

Despite being 'Pope's men', not even he is safe from the Jesuits! As the office of White and Black pope is meant for life it would be reasonable to assume the same number of each since 1540, yet there have been 32 Generals and 47 Popes, a 3:2 death ratio. One Pope, Clement XIII, died 2/2/1769 or the day before a meeting on abolishing the Order. After continued urgings by Europe, in 1773 his successor Pope Clement XIV disbanded them for eternity by Papal Bull<sup>17</sup>. Nine months later he was Pope Clement XIV: "This suppression is done at last and I am not sorry about it...I would do it again if it was not done already; but this suppression will kill me."<sup>18</sup>

The eternal infallible ban by Papal decree only lasted 41 years, when Pope Pius VII reinstated them:

Pope Clement XIV (Dominus ac Redemptor, 21/7/1773): "these our letters should for ever and to all eternity be valid, permanent, and efficacious, have and obtain their full force and effect, and be inviolably observed by all and every whom they do or may concern, now or hereafter."

Pope Pius VII (Sollicitudo Omnium, 7/8/1814): "Finally in the Lord greatly recommend the aforesaid Company...We decree that this letter and everything contained in it are and must be always and forever valid, firm and effective."

With revivals across America and the U.K an unhinged Satan simply found his Jesuits too valuable to give up in the war against Christianity. They had to be revived, even at the cost of self-contradiction:

"A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." James 1.8

THE WARS

For the Jesuits today to get their new world order under the Pope whole countries must be moved to action. What better tool to use than war? From the beginning these were waged against 'separated brethren' of the day like Luther and the Reformers:

"From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? James 4.1

'Holy' Roman Emperor Charles V

Since 1522 the Inquisition under Roman Catholic Emperor Charles V was active in the Low Countries (Netherlands). In 1546 Charles commissioned the Inquisitor Peter Titelman to seek out and destroy peaceful Mennonites. Titelman was also endorsed by Charles' son Philip II of Spain who was keeping his father's tradition. Inquisitor Titelman:

"there is no reason for anxiety in my work, for I seize only nonviolent, good people."<sup>19</sup> Upon coming to power in 1555, advised by the 33-year old Bishop of Arras, King Philip immediately re-enacted the dread edict of 1550, to kill anyone for talking about the Bible:

"[W]e forbid all lay persons to converse or dispute concerning the Holy Scriptures, openly or secretly, or to read, teach, or expound the Scriptures...or to preach openly or secretly...such are to be executed...men with the sword...women buried alive...their property...being confiscated to the crown."<sup>20</sup>

'Iron Duke' Fernando Alvarez

This brutality did not stop the Gospel spreading, so in 1567 King Philip sent in 'Iron Duke'<sup>21</sup> Alba to Brussels at the head of 10,000 soldiers. The Duke straightway set up a council to punish heretics. For the great number of deaths (lowest estimate a thousand) it became known as the Council of Blood. In 1567, William I of Orange then rose up to defend Christians, beginning an 80-year war against Rome. He protected Anabaptists and Mennonites, and also gave refuge to the persecuted Jews of Europe. In 1584 the Jesuits had him murdered by their assassin Balthazar Gerard.

1631: 'The Lion' at Breitenfeld

Intolerable persecution was the reason Christians took up arms against the Jesuits. In 1617 Holy Roman Emperor Ferdinand II became king of Bohemia. Under Jesuit advice he began burning Bibles, hymn books, destroying churches and banishing Christians. In 1618 Bohemians declared themselves kingless and had the nefarious Jesuits expelled, starting the Thirty Years' War. In 1620 at the Battle of White Mountain Ferdinand II and his Catholic League defeated Calvinist Frederick V. This began a great persecution in which an estimated 10M souls were killed<sup>22</sup>. By 1648 the wars were ended by the Treaty of Westphalia, ushering in Europe's Modern Era and some freedom to practice Christianity<sup>23</sup>. The Dutch were also free from Spain and further north in Sweden was the 'Protestant Lion' Gustavus Adolphus the Great. One of history's greatest generals defeated the Pope's League: "There are three Ls I should like to see hanged: the Jesuit Lamormaine, the Jesuit Laymann and the Jesuit Laurentius Forer." Across the English Channel in Ireland the Jesuits had instigated a massacre of Christians, the 23rd of October 1641, Ignatius Loyola's Feast Day. The Irish Catholics brutally murdered at least 150,000 people. Jesuit Conor O'Mahony, 1645:

"My dear Irish...kill all the heretics, and all that do assist and defend them...You have...between the years 1641 and 1645...killed 150,000 heretics...I verily believe you have killed more of them...so I would to God you had killed all of them."<sup>24</sup>

The carnage finally ended in 1649 when England's Lord-Protector Oliver Cromwell took his 'Ironsides' in and by severe example put the town of Drogheda to the sword. This is one root of the IRA violence still seen in Ireland today (Pope Adrian IV sold the country to England in 1155 for 'Peter's Pence').<sup>25</sup>

By exposure of their machinations Jesuit power in Europe began to wane. Eventually their own Pope [Clement XIV] was forced to suppress them, effective 1773-1814. During this time a German Jesuit Law Professor Adam Weishaupt founded the Illuminati, in Bavaria on 'May day' [1st of May], 1776.

Lafayette, 'Hero of Two Worlds'

The Jesuit's turned to the New World. Here the American Revolutionary War under General George Washington was being waged against Great Britain. The United States had declared independence only in July that same year. A key ally in the struggle was a Roman Catholic and Freemason, General Marquis de Lafayette:

"It is my opinion that if the liberties of this country [the US] are destroyed, it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to...liberty. They have instigated most of the wars of Europe."<sup>26</sup> Civil war came to the U.S. in 1861. The President at the time, Abraham Lincoln [himself assassinated by Rome], said: "This war would never have been possible without the sinister influence of the Jesuits. We owe it to Popery that we now see our land reddened with the blood of her noblest sons." In 1850, during a French Parliamentary Debate, the poet Victor Hugo aptly described the Order:

"this loathsome sect...murdering reputations because it can no longer roast human beings...The Jesuit party can now be nothing to us but an object of astonishment...hideous as an owl aloft in broad daylight."

THE MORALS

According to most men the smallest sin is lying as it never hurts anyone. This assumes God is a nobody, yet by His judgement lying is a capital offence, even a single 'white' one:

"An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour...a lying tongue is but for a moment...Lying lips are abomination to the LORD...and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone:" Proverbs 11.9a,12.19b,22a ; Revelation 21.8

The Jesuits made lying into an art form, so in the dictionary one can now find a term of offense: "a person given to subtle and equivocating arguments; casuist"<sup>27</sup> Lying is a natural outcome of Jesuit teaching as found in The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, p. 160, §365: "If we wish to proceed securely in all things, we must hold fast to the following principle: What seems to me white, I will believe black if the hierarchical Church so defines." A prominent Jesuit theologian, Tomas Sanchez invented a 'strict' form of 'mental reservation', i.e., fabricate truth by adding words to a statement, by whispering: "one may avoid falsehood if, after saying aloud I swear that I have not done that, he add in a low voice, to-day."<sup>28</sup> The older (accepted) 'wide' form leaves the lie inside the statement itself.<sup>29</sup> Current Catholic doctrine is contradictory, lying is never allowed, yet the duty to 'keep secrets faithfully' can most easily be done by lying! Rome even makes Jesus a liar in the New American Standard Bible (edited by 9 Jesuits), removing 'yet' in John 7.8 (Greek οὐπω or 'not yet') so his half-brothers were told he wasn't going to the feast!<sup>30</sup> The two-faced Roman God and key holder, Janus is a lying spirit at home with the Jesuits, strong arm of the key-bearing, pagan office of 'Pontifex Maximus'.

On 22/12/1894 an innocent man, French Captain Alfred Dreyfuss was found guilty of treason and sent to Devil's Island. The real culprit, Hungarian Ferdinand Esterhazy was sending 'express letters' to the German Embassy in Paris. A French Intelligence Officer Colonel Henry forged an incriminating document to condemn Dreyfuss, but this was soon found out by the chief General, Mouton de Boisdeffre. The sordid affair was then covered up by the Council of War to save face. Interestingly, De

Boisdeffre had daily visits by his Jesuit confessor Father Du Lac, the force behind France's anti-semitic La Libre Parole (above-right). Two other Roman Catholic newspapers, French La Croix (work of Assumptionist/Jesuit Vincent-de-Paul Bailly) and La Civiltà Cattolica (official Jesuit publication) together waged a 4-year campaign against the Jew Alfred Dreyfuss: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" Isaiah 5.20

On their guilt: "The Congregations and especially the Jesuits are denounced by the Affair's historians. And, this time, we must admit that the Jesuits took the first shot with a very thoughtless temerity."<sup>31</sup>

On the Jews: "The Jew's emancipation has been the result of the so-called principles of 1789, whose yoke weighs heavily on all French...The Jew has been created by God to be used as a spy wherever some treason is being prepared...It is not only in France...that the Jews must be excluded from the nation."<sup>32</sup>

The Jesuits have contributed their fair share to Rome's vast unknown wealth<sup>33</sup>. The Apostle Peter said "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have I give thee"; and the Lord Jesus to the early church in Smyrna: "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich)". Among the Jesuit's works were: running a plantation in Martinique with negro slaves; owning vast land parcels in North Africa; running Mexican silver mines and sugar refineries; Paraguayan tea and cocoa plantations; a huge cattle trade; smuggling gold dust to Spain in cocoa boxes!

"All the wealth of South America is in the hands of the Jesuits." Bishop Palafox to Innocent X, 25/5/1647

As usurers the Jesuits were shown to be hypocrites. They lent money to Chinese merchants at up to 100% interest!<sup>34</sup> A Christian is supposed to hold an even higher standard than the Old Testament (which allowed usury of strangers)<sup>35</sup> with the practice now forbidden outright:

"And Jesus went into the temple of God...and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers...But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again;" Matthew 21.12, Luke 6.35

Their morality is revealed by Adolf Hitler, 'son of the Catholic Church' who 'died while defending Christianity'<sup>36</sup>. "I learned much from the Order of the Jesuits, I transferred much of this organisation into my own party," and, "I can see Himmler [SS Chief] as our Ignatius of Loyola"<sup>37</sup>. The Nazi bible, Mein Kampf, was heavily edited by Jesuit Bernhardt Staempfle.<sup>38</sup>

Jesuit Andrei Ouroussof: "One must not think of Jesus-Christ. If we thought of Him, we would end up on the cross. And, today, the time has come to put others on the cross and not be hoist on it ourselves."<sup>39</sup>

THE OATH

"And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul." Acts 23.12

Excluding millions of Jesuit-educated, there are ~17,000 official Jesuits in the world<sup>40</sup>. Each take an Oath of Induction, reproduced in part below, as entered into the United States Congressional Record (House Bill 1523, Consisted election case of Eugene C. Bonniwell, against Thomas. S. Butler, Feb. 15, 1913, pp. 3215-3216)<sup>41</sup>. While reading keep in mind Jesuits claim to be Christians!

'Iustum Necare Reges Impios'.
"It is just to kill impious kings."

[Superior] My son heretofore you have been taught to act the dissembler: among Roman Catholics to be a Roman Catholic...to be a spy even among your own brethren; to believe no man, to trust no man. Among the Reformers, to be a reformer; among the Huguenots to be a Huguenot; among the Calvinists, to be a Calvinist; among the Protestants, generally to be a Protestant, and obtaining their confidence, to seek even to preach from their pulpits, and to denounce with all the vehemence in your nature our Holy Religion and the Pope; and even to descend so low as to become a Jew among Jews, that you might be enabled to gather together all information for the benefit of your Order as a faithful soldier of the Pope...for none can command here who has not consecrated his labors with the blood of the heretic; for "without the shedding of blood no man can be saved". "I...now in the presence of Almighty God...will unhesitatingly obey each and every command I may receive from my superiors...I do now renounce and disown any allegiance due to any heretical king, prince or state named Protestants or Liberals, or obedience to any laws, magistrates or officers.

I do further declare that the doctrine of the churches of England and Scotland, of the Calvinists, Huguenots and others of the name Protestants or Liberals to be damnable and they themselves damned who will not forsake the same.

I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infant's heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.

...I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangling cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honour, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus..."

THE EXPULSIONS

Such words could be dismissed as mere fantasy, if the fruit of the Jesuit's vine had not been tasted wherever the 'Sons of Loyola' have set foot: From 1540 to 1968 the Society of Jesus has been expelled at least 167 times<sup>42</sup> from cities, states, countries, and often multiple times from the same place! As above (p. II) they were so evil even the Roman Catholic Church had to expel them:

"And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." Mark 3.24

The trouble began after the Diet of Speyer in 1544. Emperor Charles V wanted to invade France and was forced to grant concessions to Lutheran princes and 'reformed' Christianity. He had the Jesuits removed from court as after only four years of existence were already political conspirators.

Their first banishment proper was in 1555, from Zaragoza in the north east of Spain. Over 400 years the top ten countries by expulsions are: France 21 times, Italy (17), England (11), Spain (10), Switzerland (8), Russia (7), Austria (6), Paraguay (6), Portugal (6), Brasil (5). Their birthplace is number one and the top two 'Catholic' places! Despite all this evil the Jesuits have yet failed to deliver the world to the Pope. The bulwark has been the Bible: "[T]he Bible, that serpent which with head erect and eyes flashing threatens us with its venom...shall be changed into a rod as soon as we are able to seize it!" [Ex-Jesuit] Abbate Leone said:

"At last, having read that little book [the Bible], which set all my calculations at naught, I was forced to acknowledge to myself that it actually set forth a system of religion all-together different from that taught in the schools, and thus all my ideas were thrown into confusion."<sup>43</sup> Secularism has now forced the Jesuits to change tactics. Today they promote 'social justice' and 'liberation theology'. In 1974, the 32nd Jesuit Congregation made Decree Four: Faith and Justice, espousing such ideas. Running the richest organisation in the world, the chameleon Order is now driving a socialist agenda to garner popular support and bring on a revolution, at the same time armed with a shield of charitable works to cover their horrors-past, present and future.

Like Saul, God is able to save even the most hate-filled and violent persecutor of Christians. If you humble yourself in repentance and believe God's words, the Holy Bible, you can be eternally saved in a moment from hell and damnation. Or you can meet Him at the Great White Throne Judgement:

"For there is nothing hid, which shall not be made manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad." Mark 4.22, AV
